

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Max Coleman. I have had the privilege of coaching Max for the past several years and have watched him grow not only as an athlete but also as an outstanding individual.

Max is an exceptionally skilled and driven skier with tremendous potential in the sport. His technical ability, work ethic, and passion for progression set him apart. What truly makes Max special, however, is his attitude—he is one of the most coachable and respectful athletes I have worked with. He listens intently, applies feedback immediately, and is always eager to improve.

Beyond his athletic abilities, Max is an all-around great person. He has a positive personality that uplifts those around him, making him a valuable teammate and leader. He treats others with kindness and respect, creating an encouraging and supportive environment wherever he goes.

I have no doubt that Max will find success in any opportunity he pursues, whether in skiing or beyond. He is talented, hardworking, and a pleasure to work with. I highly recommend him for any team, program, or endeavor he chooses to take on.

Please feel free to reach out if you need any further insight.

Best regards,
Kerry Lofy
