

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Warren for the Flyin' Ryan Adventure Scholarship. Over the past four years, I have had the privilege of coaching Warren, and in that time, he has consistently distinguished himself not only as a talented athlete, but as an exceptional teammate and person.

Warren is one of the most supportive athletes. Regardless of his own performance, he is always the first to encourage and celebrate his teammates. His positivity and genuine care for others help create a strong, uplifting team environment, and he leads by example.

What stands out most about Warren is his character. He is remarkably kind, thoughtful, and humble. He approaches both training and competition with maturity well beyond his years, always demonstrating respect for his teammates, coaches, and his competitors.

Athletically, Warren has already achieved impressive success. Last year, he won the U12 Junior Freeride Championships at Kirkwood. Super impressive, especially since it was his first time competing out west! This year, in his first season competing as a U15 athlete, he had a solid season qualifying for the Junior Freeride Championships, an accomplishment that speaks volumes about his dedication and ability.

Warren's work ethic is truly outstanding. He is consistently one of the first athletes on the hill and one of the last to leave. He loves skiing with his friends and always wants to do one more run. He approaches Freeride with the right mindset, focusing on having fun, setting personal goals, and growing as both an athlete and individual. No matter the conditions he's ready for an adventure.

In every sense, Warren embodies the spirit of the Flyin' Ryan Core Values. He is passionate, hardworking, and deeply supportive of those around him. I have no doubt that he will continue to make a positive impact both on and off the mountain.

I strongly recommend Warren for an Adventure scholarship.
